SORCERER

TRACKERS

CORE TALENT

• SORCERY: You have spellcasting ability. You roll Presence to cast and your magic paths and techniques serve as touchstones. You can cast spells at-will, though they always carry risk and require a roll. You can push yourself to cast a potent spell, but gain no free activation of it. When casting, rolling two or more 1s triggers a secondary wild surge—raw magic spirals out of your control. Make a 2d story roll to see what happens. Use the GM crucible or ask your group for ideas. [Growth: 2 levels/gain a new technique or magic path]

MAGIC PATHS & TECHNIQUES

PATH TALENTS

- O ELDRITCH GROWTH: The maelstrom of magic has twisted your body. You gain a permanent physical feature. In addition to its obvious benefits, it now serves as a touchstone.
- O MAELSTROM: You open yourself fully to the maelstrom of raw magic. When you cast a potent spell, 5s count as 6s, but 4s count as 1s. These 4s also count as 1s towards wild surge.
- O MAGIC SENSE: You always get a hint or reveal on vigilance involving magic. When you avoid or disrupt it, take spark.
- O SPELLEATER: You have a 3d Spelleater pool (per session). When you suffer from magic, roll the pool. If dice remain, ignore the effect and bank essence (max 2). Spend it to increase a spellcasting die result by 1, but it triggers wild surge.
- O SUBTLE CASTING: You can always cast spells subtly, able to conceal that you were the one that cast it. This doesn't defeat common sense, of course.
- O WISPS: Two small spheres of your magic path float around you. Give them 2 traits: annoying—capricious—malevolent—mesmerizing—whimsical. They serve as touchstones. You can sacrifice one to: assist without risk—distract someone—suffer vex in your stead. Make story rolls to determine effects if sacrificed. They return each session.
- O WRATH: When you or a nearby ally gets bloodied, rattled, or dropped, you take +1d and potency on your next spell if you immediately lash out.
